AN

UNEXPECTED

HERO

By : ALYANA Z.N

This story began when I moved to a new home .

My new home
is very quiet and surrounded
by many wild plants.
Here, I have a
neighbor,

but only one,
Mrs. Tholo.
She is old and lives alone. My mother considers her
as part of our family.
My mother usually
delivers cakes to her house.

One night, I could not sleep.
And I heard ...

And that night I
could not sleep.

The next day ...

Then, I looked at the trees.

So, I took a shower but kept thinking about what Mrs. Tholo did. I knew for sure she had an evil plan for our family.

When we went on vacation in NTT, my mother was very happy to eat the fruits that the bats had eaten. She said what the bats had eaten would taste good.

A few days after
our holiday, my mother was suffering
from a severe flu and a fever. When examined
by a doctor, it turned out that my mother had contracted
the CORONAVIRUS.

When I approached my mother, the CORONAVIRUS suddenly spoke.

Hey, I am a Corona,
I can cause illness and death. I spread very fast.
There is no vaccine that
can get rid of me.
And after this, it's
your turn to get my virus.

No, I don't want to die.
I still want to travel the world.

Mrs. Tholo ???
How did you get
in here ?

Then, Mrs. Tholo said to the CORONAVIRUS.

Corona, I already know your weakness. Take this curcuma (traditional medicine or vaccine) that I have made with my magic powers.

Hom - hom ...
Semlehoyo ...
Hoeya ...

Suddenly, the CORONAVIRUS disappeared
because of the curcuma vaccine, and my mother recovered from her flu and fever.

①
Thank you very much,
Mrs. Tholo. Sorry for judging you, hating you and for being suspicious of you. I'm sorry, Mrs. Tholo.

③
Sorry, but I thought
you had evil plans
for my family with
the magic powers
you have.

②
I forgive you. No problem. What you see isn't always what you think. Aly, when I found out about
the CORONAVIRUS, I
looked for the right
vaccine to get rid of it.
But the vaccine was difficult to make.
When you saw me
drying the leaves,
you saw my
failure.

⑤
Yes, you are right. Thank
you. You are like a grandmother to me.
You are my Hero.

④
I hope for the future you don't judge people before you know the truth. And also you must remember there is failure behind success.

Finally, we all hugged,
my mother, my father, and Mrs. Tholo. Then, Mrs. Tholo became my friend and my Hero forever.

Now
that Mrs. Tholo knew the vaccine for the coronavirus, she gave the vaccine to doctors for all people in the world.

(My Hero)

by : ALYANA Z.N

Everything you see might not be what you think.

Not everything that looks evil is evil.

Not everything that looks good is good.

What if what looks bad is good?

Or what looks good is bad?

We cannot judge people
from the outside.....

You are my hero, fo...re...ver...
