BILLY

WILLY

MILLY

One day, in a house in the middle of a city, a father was heard shouting at his son

His name was Billy. He was a very good boy who always tried his best. But he always failed because he never got the support from anyone. Even from his parents.

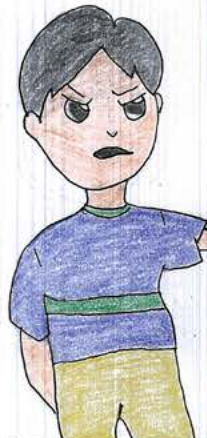

One night, Billy was staring at the stars from his room. And Billy said...

And suddenly, his father came to his room and told him to join a science competition.

Billy felt very annoyed until he punched the cupboard next to him. And magically the cupboard screamed

UGH! How can I win this competition?

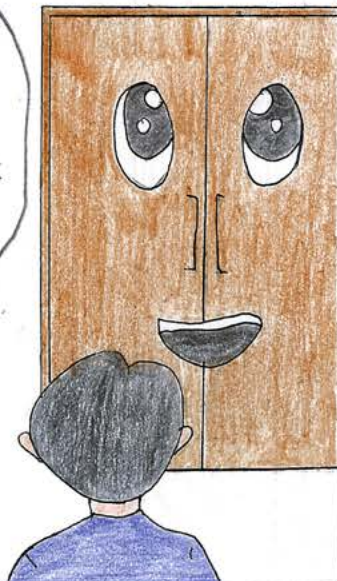

Ouch! Are you trying to break me up? Chill bro!

Hey! What? How can you talk to me?

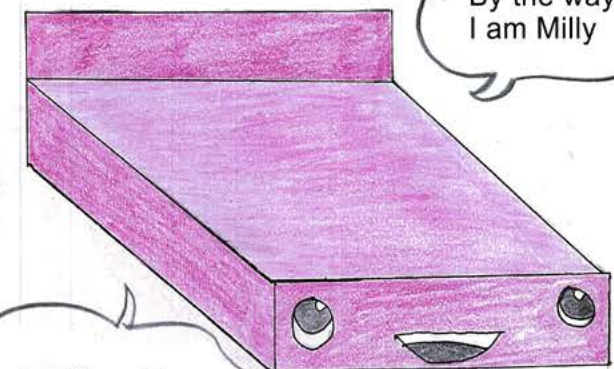

Billy was very shocked. And another voice came from his bed

Haha... you don't have to be so shocked, Billy. We are magical objects that can talk to humans.

By the way, I am Milly

And the old cupboard you just punched, is Willy

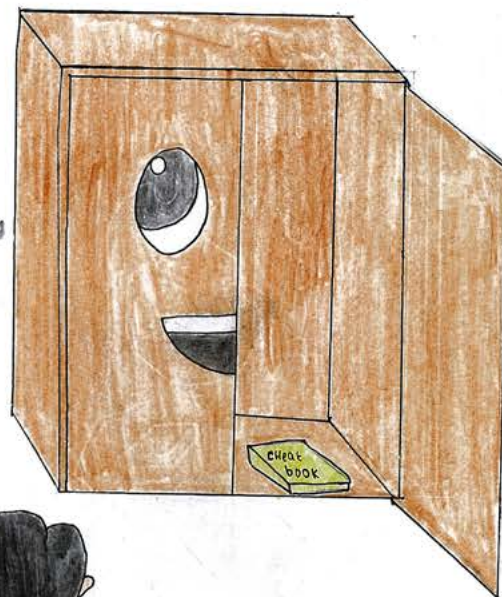

Hey Billy. Do you really want to win this competition? Why don't we just cheat? I have a cheat book that I kept for a long time

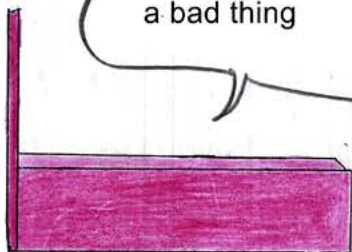

And Milly forbade Billy to do that

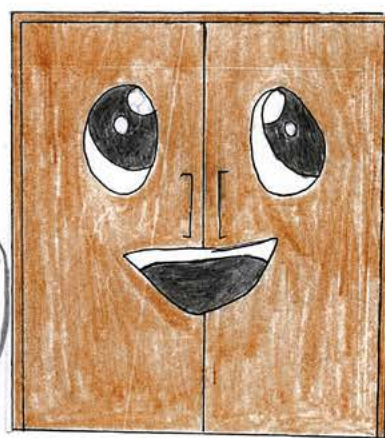

Here... take this book

No Billy. No! Don't do that, it's a bad thing

Come on Billy. You want to win, right? Just bring this book. Nobody will know it

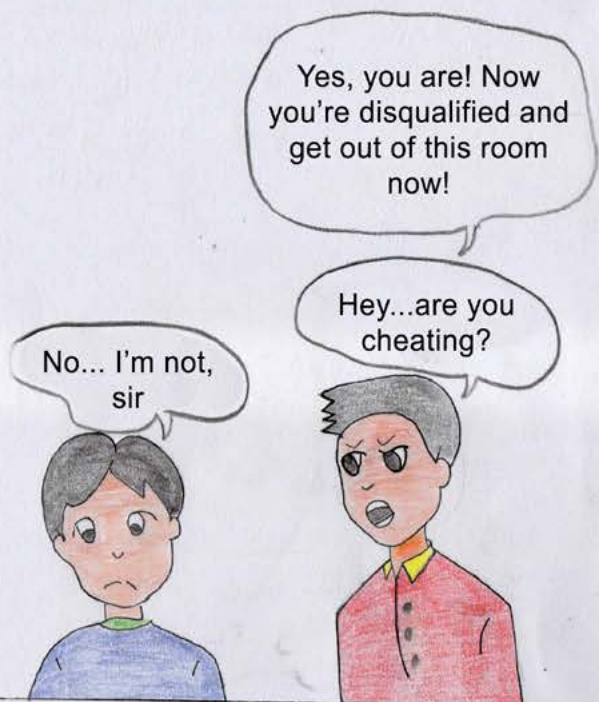

Hmm...This is cool, I will do this...hehe

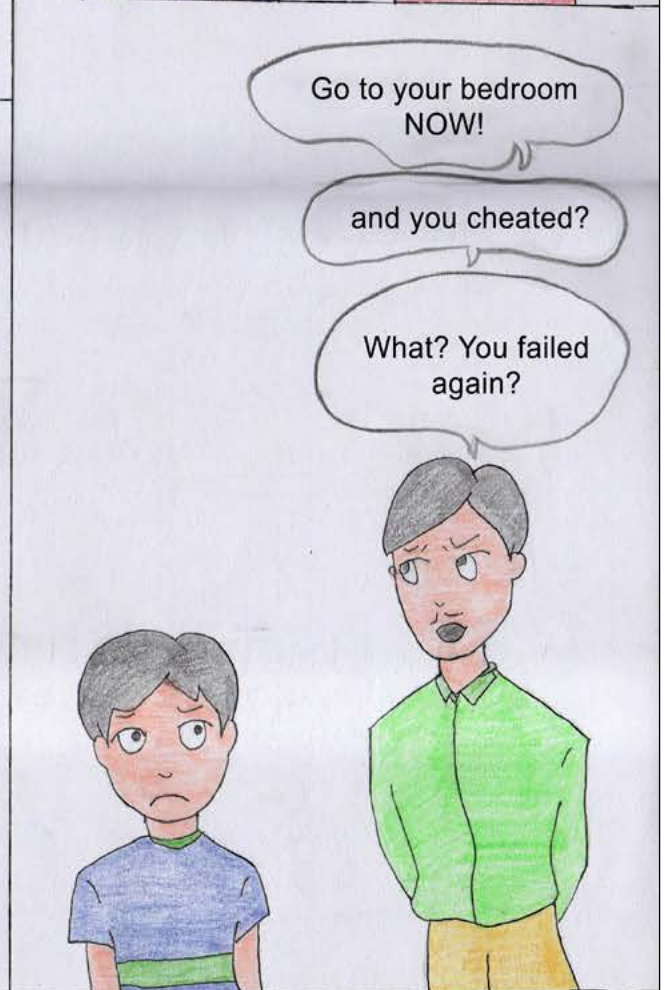

Two days later in the competition room, Billy cheated

But sadly, he was caught by the Supervisor

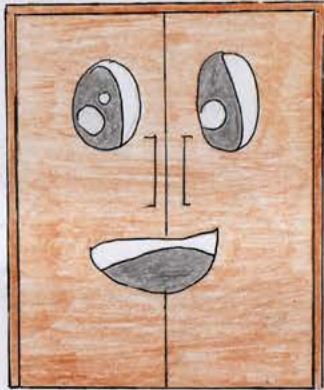

Billy went home

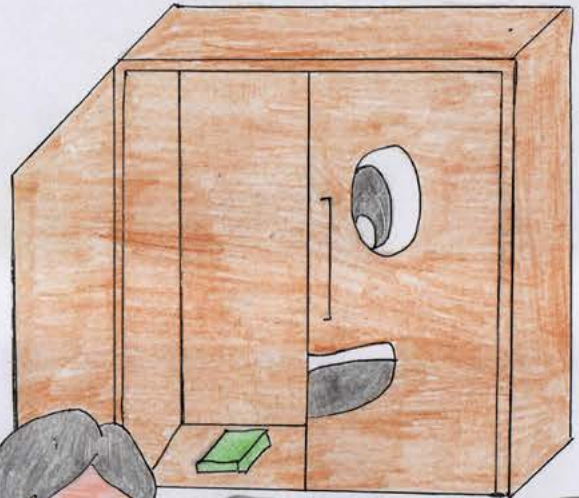

In Billy's room

I'm sorry Billy, I didn't know
this could happen to you

No Willy... this is my fault

Hey...why don't we just study? I think I still have a science book
that I kept...Take this

you will be a star.
Not just a star...

Yes Billy, we trust
you. It's way better than cheating

Do you guys
really trust
that I can do this?

But you will be a sky full of stars. Like your favourite song. "Cause you're a sky... cause you're a sky full of stars.
I think I see you..."

- A Sky Full of Stars - Coldplay

Thanks guys for the support... I will do my best

Billy kept studying until three months later his father told him to join a science competition again. But this time he didn't feel annoyed at all. He just said

And the next day in the competition room, Billy answered question after question very slowly, calmly, and very confident.

Okay dad, I will prove it to you, to myself, and to the world

Science
Competition

After the competition ended Billy went to the park to wait for the announcement time

Whatever the result,
I tried my best

Until the announcement time, so unexpectedly the winner went to Billy.

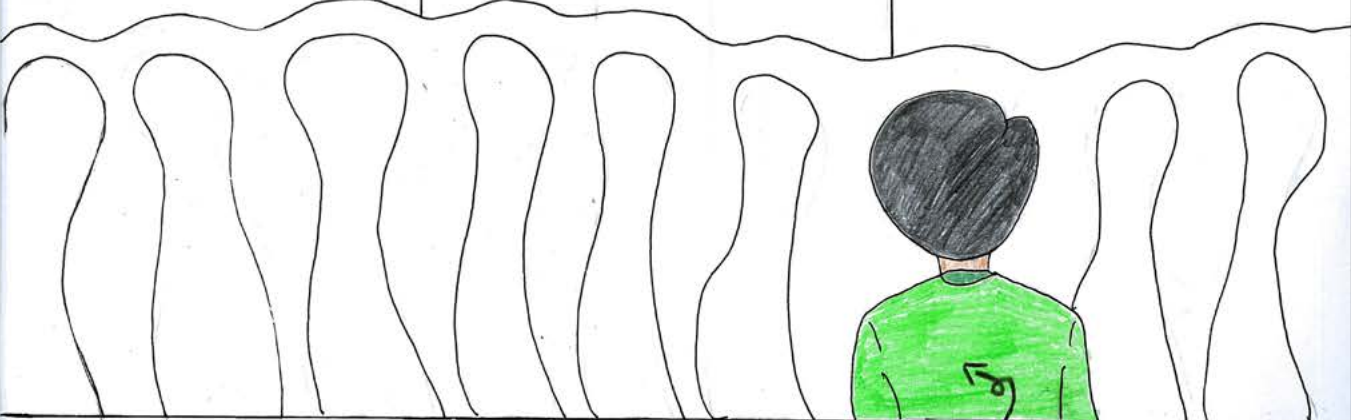

And the winner is...
BILLY!

Billy went up on stage with his bright eyes, his shining smile, and he looked at the edge of the room. And he saw his father cry with pride. And Billy said...

HEY DAD. THIS IS FOR YOU!
I MADE IT!

Billy's Father

Billy went home and told Willy and Milly about everything that had happened.

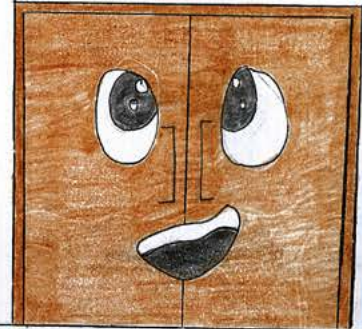

Willy!
I did it!

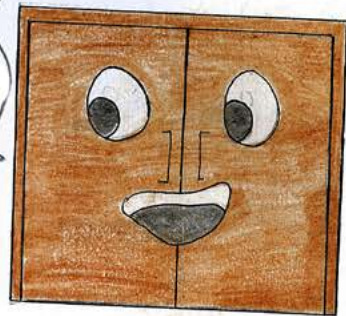

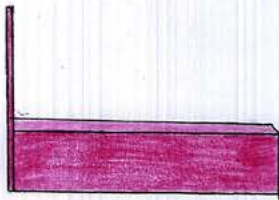

They were proud of Billy

Wow Billy. You are so cool. You prove to the world that you can be a star.

Eum, I mean now you're not just a star, but you are a sky full of stars. Hoho...

THE END

It's the end of my story and the moral value we can conclude is that a dream that you chase in the wrong way will still end up as a bad dream. But a dream that you chase in the right way will end up as the best reality. See you in the next story!!!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Hi. My name is Muhammad Arril Nasution, but people usually call me Arril. I'm 16 years old. I live in Padangsidempuan. My hobby is reading books. I also like to watch movies. I was once insecure because I thought that my physique was not as attractive as other people's physiques, until I finally realized that physicality is not the determinant of everything. I really love my family, and I love Korean food. In the future, I want to be a doctor.
